

“How to Serve as A Role-Model and an Expert in the Nutrition and Dietetics Field in Real World of Work”

A workshop to give expected knowledge, skills, and accountability in client handling in real-world work for students by an expert in the Nutrition and Dietetics field

The Department of Applied Nutrition conducted the workshop on 'How to serve as a role model and an expert in Nutrition and Dietetics field in the real world of work' as a part of the Department AHEAD Grant on 25th September 2020 with the guidance of Mrs. Thakshila Adikari. All the final year students of the Department as budding nutritionists/dietitians participated in the workshop. Mrs. Dilki Supeshla Perera who's a reputed Dietitian/Nutritionist at the Nawaloka Hospital, Negombo, Sri Lanka served as the resource person. The main objective of the workshop was to make aware of the students, specializing in Applied Nutrition about expected knowledge, skills, and accountability in client handling in the real world of work. This training will be a stepping stone for the students who wish to be trained and practice as dietitians in their future careers.
