

Exciting News!

Join us for the Pre-GRS Webinar: “Science Communication: From Student to Scholar”

Your research doesn't end in the lab or with your thesis - real impact begins when you learn to communicate it powerfully.

What You'll Learn:

- Why post-research engagement matters
- Academic dissemination (journals, abstracts, preprints & conferences)
- Creating compelling pitch decks & commercialization pathways
- Media outreach, social amplification & public engagement
- Action plan + ethical considerations

Resource Person: Professor Chalinda Beneragama Department of Crop Science, Faculty of Agriculture, University of Peradeniya

Date: 5th July 2026 Time: 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM (90 minutes) Format: Live Online

Perfect for: Postgraduate students, young researchers & early-career scholars

Don't miss this opportunity to transform your research into real-world impact!
